Bosron, Mass, Sept. 23.—Miss Sadie Robfinson, the thirest-pear-old daughter of 60,050 worth of bank bills, diamonds and 61,050 worth of bank bills, diamonds and 61,050 worth of bank bills. The circumstances of the case are most mystericos, and in many respects the robbery is one of the most remarkable ever reported to the Boston police. Miss Sadie hersoff is not a crime. She is an only child, and has always been the idol of her parents' hearts. No expense or care has been spared to secure for her the best possible educational advantages. She is an exceptionally pretty girl of the brunctuc hair and a perfect complexion. She is unusually stout for a girl of her age. She weighs mearly 100 pounds, and is as well developed physically as a girl of eighteen. Her father removed to Farmington several years ago.

At that time he sold house in Boston and received in cach altogether about 875,000.
Seven thousand dollars of this money he invested in diamonds and 885,000 he put into railway bonds.
